ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The completion of this thesis has been a remarkable experience. It is for this prime reason that I solemnly praises and feels thankful to Allah SWT. His blessings have been constant companions for me in every step of the ways during the process of proposing, composing, and accomplishing the thesis. Humbly, I am also thankful for the following persons and institution:

1.; my dearest father and mother, also, who provided me with never-ending love and support so that I am finally able to arrive at this phase of life.
2. Dra. Meilia Adiana, M.A. and Drs. Wisasongko, M.A.; my first and second advisors whose inestimable contributions color the whole construct of the thesis.
3. Students of English Department, Faculty of Letters, Jember University most especially the class of 2000 for their comforting friendship and sincere appreciation.
4. The non-teaching staffs of English Department, Faculty of Letters, Jember University for their services.
5. Partners at work and personal life whose supports have been amazingly motivating.
6. The librarians of the Faculty of Letters, of the Jember University central Library, and of the Petra University library who have allowed me to make use any resources that I need.
7.

I pray for your success always and may Allah SWT endows you with His graceful blessings.

Lastly, I hope that the thesis can be of any good for further research for those who are interested in studying Tennessee Williams works.
