p:||digilib.unej.ac.idl This research deals with critical discourse analysis in order to explore how the language is used as the instrument of the media and construct the public opinion. The Fairclough. A Critical Discourse Analysis itself is a study that is focused to explore the relationship between discourse, events and texts. the relationship between discourse, events and texts. The writer took two articles which report United States' name data of analysis. They were (a) "US Imposes Additional Sanction on Iran"; this article was published on February 06, 2012 and (b) "New US sanctions on Iran aim to head off Israel"; this article was published on February 7, 2012.

Fox News's reports, which had been indicated by some researcher, are aligned to the U.S government. They accused Fox News had a bias in reporting the information. Basically, media bring the information for the masses and they transfer it using language. They share their opinion and assumption. They also have society. Sometimes, people take for granted the issues as the actual information. They do not want to gain more information about them. jilib.unej.ac.idl

It is the analysis of discourse practice. Here, this research can also be called as an intertextual analysis of text. This is an interpretative art which depends on the analyst's judgment and experience. By doing this analysis, this research also aims to show how texts describe orders of discourse. The order of discourse can be known as the form of discourse in text which influences the meaning of text. They are genres, voices, and representations. The finding of this research indicates that there is an authority or power that reports. The form of discourse in text, such as genres, voices, and representations, has been integrated to fulfill the order of discourse. Thus, the asked and the second been integrated to fulfill the order of discourse. Thus, this construction should be asked and interrogated to reveal the to show that this also proved that language analysis by involving social context will http://digilib.unej.ac.id/ give more valid result. http://digilib.unej.ac.id/ http://digilib.unej.ac.id http://digilib.unej.ac.id/ http://digilib.unej.ac.id/ http://digilib.unej.ac.idl http://digilib.unej.ac.id/ http://digilib.unej.ac.idl http://digilib.unej.ac.id/ http://digilib.unej.ac.id/
