ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the name of Allah, the Most Beneficent, the Most Merciful, I praise Allah whose blessing has conducted me to obtain a great deal of knowledge and to finish my study. In composing this thesis, I was to face some difficulties and was nearly down, however, there was also a great desire in my heart to finish it.

For the writing of this thesis, as a matter of fact, I owe the help of many people. Thus I would like to express my deep gratitude to:

1. Drs. MH Sundoro, the Dean of the Faculty of Letters, for the chance given to me to start writing this thesis as the requirement for getting the Award of Sarjana Sastra Degree in the English Studies.
2. Drs. M Busjairi, the Head of the English Department and also my first advisor, who has spent his time giving me valuable advice and suggestion.
3. Drs. Samudji MA, my second advisor, who also has spent his time conducting me throughout the writing of this thesis.
4. All the lecturers of the Faculty of Letters, who have dedicated their time in giving me very valuable knowledge during my study in this beloved faculty.
5. The librarians of the Faculty of Letters and those of the Central Library, Jember University and the librarians of the British Council Library who were so kind to help me find books and let me borrow them.

6. My dearest parents, my sister and my brothers who have supported me when I was nearly down.
7. All my friends who have heartily encouraged me to write this thesis.

All of their help and encouragement have become a debt because I am sure without them I would find many difficulties in writing this thesis and finishing the study, but I do believe that Allah will bless them all.
